PROFILE OF DR. DAN-BRIGHT DZORGBO

Dr. Dan-Bright S. Dzorgbo, Senior Lecturer at the Department of Sociology, is the 18th Master of Mensah Sarbah Hall. He was born in Avatime-Gbadzeme. He attended Mawuli Secondary School, Ho, and Prempeh College, Kumasi, where he studied for the Ordinary and Advanced Level Examinations respectively.

He proceeded to the University of Ghana, Legon where he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Honours Degree in Sociology with Geography in 1984. He obtained his MPhil Degree in Sociology in 1995 from the University of Oslo, and in 1998, received his PhD from Uppsala University in Sweden.

He joined the Department of Sociology as a lecturer in September, 1999. He was Head of Sociology Department between 2011/2012 and 2014/20015 academic year and is a member of the Graduate Committee of the Sociology Department. He has served and continues to serve on numerous boards and committees of the University.

His main research interests are in areas such as state-development nexus, historical transformation of societies, institution building and economic development, scientific communication, particularly the impact of Information Communication Technologies on international collaborative research activities and on society in developing countries, the impact of internet and mobile phone usage, the socio-cultural dimension of health and illness, democracy and women's political participation, women's rights and welfare and the African Union and continental integration.

Dr. Dzorgbo has served as external examiner to the Department of Sociology, Kamarai University, Madurai-India, the Department of Planning and Community Studies (ILP) of the University of Tromso, now the Artic University of Norway, the Institute of Studies in Education (OISE) and Department of Sociology and Equity Studies in Education (SESE) of University of Toronto, Ontario-Canada. He is currently an external examiner to the Department of Sociology and Social Work, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, and the University of Development Studies, Tamale. He serves on the National Accreditation Board's panels for accrediting sociology and other social science programmes for universities in Ghana.

PROFILE OF DR. DAN-BRIGHT DZORGBO

He has consulted for many national and international development agencies, civil society organizations and NGOs. They include the Institute for Democratic Governance IDEG, UNDP, the European Commission, WHO, SOS Ghana, Christian Council of Ghana, Ghana Aids Commission, Panos Institute in Senegal, Idasa in South Africa, Ghana Telecommunications Company Limited now Vodafone Ghana and World Vision Ghana. He has also engaged in numerous extension activities in Ghana. Dr. Dzorgbo is currently the President of Ghana Sociological and Anthropological Association of Ghana.

Dr. Dzorgbo has published books, monographs, peer-reviewed journal articles and technical reports, among them are: Sociological theory: Classical ideas and their application in the African context, which is currently a major textbook on sociological theory and is widely used in universities in Ghana; Ghana in search of development: The challenge of governance, economic management and institution building; Foreign aid and Ghana: Power dynamics of partnership in development and Sociology and development issues in Ghana: A sociological reader. He has also published many articles in local and international peer-reviewed journals and presented papers at many national and international conferences, seminars and workshops.

MENSAH SARBAH HALL

Mensah Sarbah Hall, the fifth Hall of the University, opened in October, 1963. It stands in the southern part of the University of Ghana's Legon Campus. The Hall consists of a main Hall built around a quadrangle and a number of annexes standing to the north and east the last two south annexes are attached to the Hall. Until October 1991, Mensah Sarbah was the only co-ed Hall of Residence in the University, which made it quite unique among the Halls.

The Governing Body of the Hall is the Council, which is responsible to the full body of Fellows who form the Senate. Students' affairs are handled by students' own elected government headed by a President, while general administration of the Hall is under the Master who is assisted by the Senior Tutor and Tutors on the one hand, the Bursar and the Librarian on the other. The Senior Common Room affairs are managed by an elected Committee under the President of the Senior Common Room. The Hall is named after the famous Ghanaian jurist, writer and statesman, John Mensah Sarbah of Cape Coast. The Hall marked the centenary of John Mensah Sarbah in 2011.

The decision to name this hall of residence after John Mensah Sarbah was undoubtedly intended to honour this distinguished Ghanaian patriot, jurist and scholar, as well as to immortalise the ideals of knowledge, service and honour to which he so gallantly devoted his entire life. Those ideals, which have become the motto of the hall, are the greatest legacy John Mensah Sarbah left for future generations of Ghanaians.

THE LOGO OF THE HALL:

The Hall's logo which brings out the principal features of Mensah Sarbah's life, consists of a scale, which signifies the legal profession; the stool and the book, symbolizing culture while the hill and the castle are intended to depict the familiar landscape of Cape Coast with its many hills and forts. At the same time, the Castle is intended to symbolize strength and honour.

MOTTO OF THE HALL:
Knowledge, Honour and Service

HYMNS

HYMN 1

Hark, my soul! It is the Lord,
'Tis thy Saviour, hear His word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee –
“Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou Me?”

Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

Thou shalt see My glory soon,
When the work of grace is done,
Partner of My throne shalt be;
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou Me?”

I delivered thee when bound,
And when wounded, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wand'ring, set thee
right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above;
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.

Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love Thee, and adore,
Oh, for grace to love Thee more!

HYMN 2

King of glory, King of peace,
I will love thee;
and that love may never cease,
I will move thee.
Thou hast granted my request,
thou hast heard me;
thou didst note my working breast,
thou hast spared me.

Wherefore with my utmost art
I will sing thee,
and the cream of all my heart
I will bring thee.
Though my sins against me cried,
thou didst clear me;
and alone, when they replied,
thou didst hear me.

Seven whole days, not one in seven,
I will praise thee;
in my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort
to enroll thee:
e'en eternity's too short to extol thee.

HYMN 3

Take my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.

Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart; it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be
Ever, only, all for Thee.

HYMN 4

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land.
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand.
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more;

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through.
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield;

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side.
Songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee;

UNIVERSITY ANTHEM

1. Hail University of Ghana
The nation's hope and glory
The place that bears the star of peace
That bids us all to do our best
Let the great Tower of learning
Inspire both young and old
May we proceed in unity to uphold the public cause.

*//: Arise, arise O Legon
Defend the cause of freedom
Proceed in truth and integrity to make our nation proud ://*

2. We ask for strength and wisdom
As we climb the hill of learning
May we excel in what'er we do
As we prepare to face the world
With a mind ready at all times
And a conscience quick to feel
May we proceed in unity to uphold the public cause.

*//: Arise, arise O Legon
Defend the cause of freedom
Proceed in truth and integrity to make our nation proud ://*
