

INTERNATIONAL WEEK CELEBRATION 2017

International Programmes Office is 20 years in June 2017!

As a precursor to our official anniversary events, the office will hold its annual International Week from March 20 - 25, 2017. This is to showcase the university's internationalisation efforts and to give our students the opportunity to market their universities and home countries to the university community.

The Office of Dean of International Programmes invites you all to be part of this celebration. Kindly find below the programme outline and a flyer attached

International Week Celebrations Programmes Outline

Day 1: Monday 20th March, 2017

Open forum

Time: 5pm - 7pm

Venue: IPO Seminar room

For all international students and programme coordinators

Day 2: Tuesday 21st March, 2017

Roundtable Discussion

Theme: Internationalization At Legon: Translating Theory to Practice

Speakers:

Prof Francis Dodoo (Pro Vice Chancellor, Research Innovation and Development);

Dr James Dzisah (Director CEGENSA);

Dr Lloyd Amoah (Ag Director Centre for Asian Studies);

Mrs Theresa Kwakye (Resident Director ISEP and President African American Association of Ghana);

Dr Ildiko Csajbok-Twerefou, (Coordinator of the Russian Section, Department of Modern Languages);

Dr Mjiba Frehiwot (Research Fellow, Institute of African Studies)

Time: 10am - 12pm

Venue: IPO Seminar room

Day 3: Wednesday 22nd March, 2017

Debate

Topic: There should be limits to free speech on social media

Time: 11.30am - 12.30pm

Venue: IPO Seminar room

Film Show

Movie Title: Hidden Figures

Time: 5.30pm - 7.30pm

Venue: International House, Auditorium

Day 4: Thursday 23rd March, 2017

Global Cuisine

Students from various countries will showcase dishes from their home countries

Time: 3pm - 6pm

Venue: International House

Day 5: Friday 24th March, 2017

Fun Games

Indoor and outdoor

Time: 2pm - 6pm

Venue: Athletic Oval

Day 6: Saturday 24th March, 2017

Fun Trip

A trip to Maranatha Beach Resort, at Ada Foah.

Time: 7am - 7pm

There will be exhibitions at the International House carpark by programmes throughout the week starting Monday 20th March, 2014.

All Are Cordially Invited!!!